Welcome

Welcome to the Families First Resource Guide.

At Kingdom Family Ministry, we believe every family deserves hope, encouragement, and access to caring support during life's challenges. Whether you're experiencing financial hardship, searching for housing, looking for counseling, or simply trying to find your next step, you are not alone.

This guide was created to connect individuals and families with trusted organizations throughout Montgomery County and North Harris County that provide assistance with food, housing, healthcare, employment, legal services, transportation, counseling, and many other needs. Our prayer is that these resources help you find the support you need while reminding you that there is hope for every season. Although Kingdom Family Ministry does not operate every program listed in this guide, we are committed to helping families identify available resources and connect with organizations that may be able to assist.

Thank you for allowing us to serve you. It is our prayer that this guide encourages you, equips you, and helps strengthen your family.

"Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ." — Galatians 6:2 (NIV)

Before You Call

Every organization has its own eligibility requirements, funding availability, and application process. If one organization is unable to assist, another may have resources available.

Helpful Tips

- Call even if you're unsure whether you qualify.
- Ask what services are currently available.
- Ask whether appointments are required.
- Ask what documents, if any, may be needed.
- Write down the name of the person you speak with and any instructions they provide.
- If assistance is unavailable, ask whether there is a waiting list or when additional funding may become available.
- Ask whether they can recommend another organization that may be able to help.
- Don't become discouraged if you need to contact more than one organization. Assistance programs vary by funding source and eligibility requirements.

Resource Information

Kingdom Family Ministry strives to provide accurate and up-to-date information. Because community programs, funding, office hours, eligibility requirements, and services may change, we encourage you to contact each organization directly to verify current information before visiting or applying for assistance.

If you discover information that needs updating, please let us know by contacting Kingdom Family Ministry so we can improve future editions of this guide.
